

ISA HIGHEST RECOGNITION RATE

“CLEANS UP” AT GARFIELD MUN!!

On January 14, 2012, 37 ISA students participated in the Model UN competition at Garfield High School and 29 of them (78%) won some form of award or recognition. That is the highest recognition rate ISA has ever experienced!! Eight ninth-graders were among the winners which is very encouraging for the future of the club!! Approximately 250 students from 12 schools participated.

Those winning an award or recognition were:

BEST DELEGATION (First Place):

- Musirah Khan and Farah Elherazy, representing the USA on the Disarmament and International Security Committee;
- Yasmine Elhelaly and Vivian Zohery, representing Egypt on the Arab Spring Committee;
- Marwane Boudriga and Abdullah Ahmed, representing the USA on the United Nations Security Council.

OUTSTANDING DELEGATION (Second Place):

- Fadumo Osman and Rana Suliman, representing Italy in the United Nations Organization on Outer Space.

HONORABLE MENTION (Third Place):

- Dena Garada and Heba Zaidan, representing Cuba on the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee;
- Yasmin Hartary and Samia Jrab, representing the UK on the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee;
- Tasneem Shaikh, representing the Pakistani Minister of the Interior on the Kashmir Conflict Committee;
- Ali Jaber, representing Paul Otellini on the Google vs Apple Committee;
- Omer Aslim and Qusai Shabsigh, representing Turkey on the Arab Spring Committee;
- Haroun Ansari and Sohaib Khan, representing Syria on the Arab Spring Committee;
- Bilal Aslim and Mohamed Dahir, representing the UK on the United Nations Security Council.

Verbal Commendations (Fourth Place):

- Dana Najib and Fatima Dahir, representing the UAE on the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee;
- Amina Nahavandi and Mariam Khan, representing the Netherlands on the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee;
- Lena Bakir, representing the Pakistani Minister of Kashmir Affairs on the Kashmir Conflict Committee;
- Aysha Chughtai and Dannaia Salem, representing the Pakistani Minister of Defense on the Kashmir Conflict Committee;
- Iman Aly, representing Germany on the United Nations Security Council;
- Abdullah Aly, representing South Korea on the Social, Cultural and Humanitarian Committee.