

ISA WINS RESEARCH AWARD AT C.D. HYLTON MODEL UN COMPETITION

On December 2nd and 3rd of 2011, thirty-eight ISA students attended the Model UN competition at C. D. Hylton High School in Woodbridge, Virginia. This is one of the largest competitions held on the east coast, with approximately 500 students in attendance this year. In addition to ISA winning the School Research Award, seven of our students won some type of individual/team award or recognition. They were:

Best Delegation: (First Place)

- Marwane Boudriga and Abdullah Ahmed, who represented South Africa in the United Nations Environmental Protection Agency; (UNEP)

Honorable Delegation: (Third Place)

- Musirah Khan and Tasneem Shaikh, who represented South Africa in the African Union; (AU)
- Ali Jaber, who worked in the Avatar Water, Air, Earth Nations;

Verbal Commendation: (Fourth Place)

- Yasmine Elhelaly and Farah Elherazy, who represented the Philippines in the United Nations Forum on Forests.

Everyone worked hard and did a GREAT job. The Research Award recognizes the excellent work in research and writing of ALL of the students who attended.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL!!!!
